Tour of Canada Martin Scott, November, 2005

I believe alongside the National House of Prayer (I'm talking now about Canada) where people are going to come from the provinces to Ottawa. What I also saw, is there's also going to come, and has to come, where there's a team or teams that are going province to province, across Canada. There's got to be a provincial tour and apostolic declarations have to take place in these next I would say 18 months, the time scale that I see.

Why? Because it's about establishing government. You have to come into the season of the total unraveling of the masonic. The masonic is the glue that holds the occult in place. If you do not break the glue, you'll be forever fighting the occult here, but it will just manifest another way, in another place, under another name. I've got no empirical evidence for saying what I've just said. I've got no research that I can take you to. I'm just saying that's what I see in my spirit. There's going to be a season where apostolic declarations are made in those cities because the masonic has so locked things up in your nation, and you're only going to see an ungluing when those things are impacted and hit and it has to be done province by province. That's what I saw.
